The Archdiocese of Cincinnati, in union with the Catholic Church around the world, will celebrate members of religious orders and others in consecrated life during the Year of Consecrated Life called by Pope Francis from November 30, 2014 to February 2, 2016. The theme for the celebration in the Archdiocese, reflecting the Pope's goals for the Year, is "Celebrating the Past, Serving in the Present, Embracing the Future." "Each of us has a call from God, and discovering God's call for us will bring joy to our life," said the Most Reverend Dennis M. Schnurr, Archbishop of Cincinnati. "Religious life / consecrated life is a viable option."
