

Social Action Events in Dayton for September

*Month of September – Peace Dayton events, Peace Dayton calendar This link provides a listing of numerous events in the Dayton region during the month of September to promote peace and to commemorate the United Nations World Day of Peace on September 21. Dayton has the most extensive peace event offerings in the world! Please support community organizations by attending an event. Beyond Dayton, find other national and global peace cities who are holding events in September: <http://www.internationalcitiesofpeace.org/cities-listing/>

Wed., September 4, 3:00 pm at Salem Hts. Chapel – Prayer service for immigrant children. On this national Catholic day of action for the humane treatment of immigrants and refugees, Sr. Maryann Bremke will lead a prayer service to remember the eight children who died in detention in the U.S. since December 2018.

Wed., September 4, 5:30 – 7:30 pm. – Women’s Interfaith gathering. Topic, “How We See God: Judaism.” Held at Fazl-i-Umar Mosque on 637 Randolph St. Dayton Ohio 45417. RSVP to ladiesinterfaith@gmail.com or 937-781-6579.

Sat., September 7, 4:30 pm – Longest Table dinner (picnic style). Pack your dinner and blanket to join community members at the Levitt Pavilion, 134 S. Main St., Dayton, 45404. There will be gently guided conversation meant to help you connect with others. RSVP at <https://thelongesttabledayton.com/rsvp>. To volunteer, click here: Volunteer, longest table

Sat., Sept. 14, 10 - 1 pm at Salem Hts. – Unpacking Racial Power and Privilege - Discussion of Tim Wise’s film, “White Like Me.” RSVP to csadayton@catholiccincinnati.org by Sept. 10.

Tues, September 17, 1:00 at Salem Hts. – Sr. Alice’s colleague at Maria Joseph, Pastor Robert Walker, will speak about his experience of racism as a black man in America.

Wed., September 18, 4 – 8pm – Gem City Market block party and community potluck. Food, fun and games at the future site of the market on lower Salem Ave.

Wed., September 18, 7-8:30 pm – Archdiocese of Cincinnati’s Distinguished Speaker event featuring Robert Ellsberg, who worked with Dorothy Day for the last five years of her life and was the editor of the Catholic Worker newspaper. Hosted by Pastoral Region VI at Chaminade-Julienne H.S., 505 S. Ludlow St., Dayton

Thurs., September 19, 7 pm – The World House Choir (worldhousechior.org) performs “Our Planet – Our Lives” at the Levitt Pavilion, 134 S. Main St., Dayton, 45404. Performance includes Paul Winter’s Missa Gaia, DCDC dancers and two original musical works.

Tues., September 24, 7:00 pm – Lethal Injection: Human Rights and the Law. Moderator is former Governor Bob Taft. Panelists will discuss questions being raised about the death penalty and current status of the practice. University of Dayton, Keller Hall, Room 111.

Questions? Contact Colleen Kammer, 837-3302